

2018-2019 GW Triathlon Junior Assistant Coach Internship Program

Junior Assistant Coach-In-Training Internship: Nutrition.

The GW Triathlon Team is now accepting applications for the 2018-2019 Junior Assistant Coach Internship program. We believe that internships are an important part of a student athlete's career development, and encourage you to pass this along to any interested parties you may know of.

While the intern position is not paid, interns will:

- Have the option to use their work for research papers, classes or independent study credits;
- Learn leadership and management skills;
- Earn letters of recommendation;
- Have a flexible schedule to fit their academic and athletic schedules.

Our team is looking for bright, energetic and personable individuals with a passion for learning, swimming, running, cycling, nutrition and building team spirit. Those with a background in cycling, or students currently studying sports management, are particularly encouraged to apply.

Some of the activities the successful candidate will participate in will include:

- Working directly with the GW Triathlon Coach to create food ideas that integrate into the Team's 2018-19 and 2019-20 season race goals;
- Co-Leading three information sessions per semester;
- Approximately 2.5 hours commitment per week;
- Opportunity to work in broader team management and leadership with the DC Regional Collegiate Triathlon Federation.

Additional activities the successful candidate may be have the opportunity to participate in may include:

- Fund raising and grant writing proposals;
- Research and create white papers/briefs about collegiate Swimming, Cycling, Running, and Nutrition issues in triathlon;
- Attend and support coaches meetings with our members, USAT officials, and DC Collegiate Teams;
- Assist with administrative and organizational tasks;
- Network with other D.C. triathlon professionals.

If you know of anyone who may be interested in applying, please have them email a short cover letter and resume to admin@ireinspire.com and copy the GW Triathlon Coach (Dr. Mourning-Star, mourningstar@gwu.edu) with the subject heading "Junior Assistant Coach-In-Training Internship: Nutrition."

Applications are due by noon Monday, October 29th and applicants may apply for more than one position, but must submit separate applications for each (candidates will only be selected for one position).

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Sincerely,

Phoenix Mourning-Star, PhD
